Did you know that...

... a number of sayings have evolved from Leyden's farm people?

Swallows flying under a cow's belly indicate that rain is in the offing. If one crow crosses one's path, sorrow is just around the corner. If two crows appear, then a joyous event is not far off. Thunder heard in September foreshadows a warm October. Lilacs planted on the north side of a house were said to keep away witches (this may not necessarily be a good thing!)

The Historical Commission kindly reminds you that if you have any materials directly related to Leyden that you no longer wish to keep, we would enthusiastically and gratefully welcome them into our collection. If you have materials and wish to keep them, please consider allowing us to copy or photograph them. We're interested in recent as well as "ancient" Leyden history.

We continue to sell Leyden T-shirts and laminated historic maps of Leyden to help us fund our myriad projects.

Contact Ginny Rockwood at 774-2694 or wings@mtdata.com, or Bob Snow at 772-0924, or any member of the Commission for more information.

Robertson Memorial Library

Library Hours: Monday 1:00 – 6:00 PM; Wednesday 1:00 – 6:00 PM,
Saturday 10:00 AM – 12:00 NOON, Phone 773-9334 (Leave a message any time.)

Kyle DeAngelis, a seventh grader at PVRs, made a great suggestion, which I will pass on to you. Instead of putting your family-friendly Wii games in a corner to collect dust when you no longer want to use them, why not donate them to the library so that others can enjoy them without the cost of purchasing them? We think this is a great idea, and we welcome any Wii game that has been replaced by a new activity. Thanks, Kyle!

We have added eighty-seven new DVDs to our collection. Feel free to browse and select your favorites for viewing. DVDs are yours for only a week so that others can sign them out without too long a wait.

Sharon Fontaine has donated a book that genealogists will appreciate. Entitled The Miner and Browning Families, it was written by one of Sharon's relatives, Constance A. (Lincoln) Delaney. It deals with the ancestors and descendants of Alton and Jessalyn Browning Miner of Northfield, Mass., but there are many references to Leyden and other towns in our area. Come in and take a look. Thank you, Sharon!

Nate and Beth Messer shared some interesting information with me last week. If you have something that you no longer need but is not worth the effort of selling, go to Freecycle.org and register under the Greenfield group. Freecycle.org will help you to find 'stuff' as well as give away anything from egg cartons to rug remnants, paint, flower pots—you name it! Thanks, Nate, Beth and Eli (and Bubba, of course)!

Robin and Jeff Neipp have donated A Living Treasure, a history of Arlington National Cemetery, to the library in honor of Ari Brown-Weeks of Leyden. Pictures and clips of Ari will be included in the book, so we invite you to borrow it as Memorial Day approaches. Ari was a wonderful young man, and it is fitting that his memory be kept alive. A military radio operator and paratrooper, Ari was awarded the Bronze Star. He died while serving his country in 2007 and is buried in Arlington, VA, Section 60, Site #8062.

Happy spring!

Three-Mile Tag Sale

Last year's Three-Mile Tag Sale was so successful, according to so many of you who participated in it, that we would like to try it again! (It started at the Town Hall and traveled west on West Leyden Road to the Ten-Mile Bridge over the Green River.)

We're hoping that everyone who participated last year will want to do it again, and we hope that some new people would like to join us. It's important that we have a significant number of people taking part, so that out-of-towners will find it attractive to come. (Last year we had 16 families at 12 locations.) We'd like to hear from you about your interest for this year.

We'll circulate messages again on West Leyden Road to see how many would like to take part, and we look forward to hearing from you. Once again we'll be happy to coordinate the preparations for the sale, putting an ad in the local papers, etc.

Please call Sue or Cliff Carlson at 624-3695 or email us at cliff.carlson@ymail.com.

—Cliff Carlson

Music on the Hill Continues

TopHill Music brings you the second Sunday music event on Sunday, May 15th at 7:00 PM at Leyden Town Hall. This month we share Irish music with you with The Press Gang—Alden Robinson on fiddle, Owen Marshall on guitar and harmonium, and Chris Stevens on button accordion and anglo concertina.

"There are three reasons for Boston-area Irish music fans to like this trio: They're young, they're from New England, and they've clearly got a strong dose of Irish trad in their collective bloodstream. Oh yes, one more reason: They're very good." —Sean Smith, The Boston Irish Reporter (June 2010)

Consistent with the Music on the Hill Series, there will be a potluck dessert at the break. Bring something to share with your friends and neighbors (optional).

Admission is $10 for adults, children under 12 is $5. Hope to see you there!

Meetings, Gatherings and Announcements

Council on Aging

We had a really wonderful time at our April meeting and especially enjoyed the excellent presentation about traveling in Chile by Jeannie Bartlett. Thank you, Jeannie!

We will meet next on Thursday, May 12th at 10:30 AM in the church fellowship hall. The program is not determined at this time, but you can count on a relaxed gathering of fine people and a tasty meal featuring locally grown, organic food. Visitors of all ages are always welcome. If you want to join us for lunch, please let Edith Fisher know at 773-7336 by Monday, May 9th, so we can plan the meal accordingly.

I am actively looking for people to help with planning and carrying out our monthly meetings. If that's something that appeals to you, on a regular or casual basis, please let me know. Your help can be as large or small as you wish; ideas for programs, cooking, set up and clean up, are a few of the possible ways to be involved.

The Leyden Council on Aging is dedicated to providing programs that support healthy and independent living for local seniors and is funded and supported by the Massachusetts Executive Office of Elder Affairs. Their funding allows the COA to offer delicious meals and interesting programs and to help support the newsletter and more.

Leyden Portrait Project

This is just another reminder that I am making a list of people who would like to be photographed for the second round of my project. If we spoke of it once casually when we were out walking or when you ran into me at the grocery store, could you please still contact me by phone or email to be added to my list?

People keep asking me great questions that expand the project. The answer to all of these is "yes":

- If I don't live in Leyden any more but I raised my children here, can we be in the book? Yes.
- Can part-time residents be in the book? Yes.
- I was in the book alone or with just my husband: can I be in the book again with my whole family? Yes.
- Can kids be in the book? Yes.

YES! Call me, Trish Crapo at 413-774-202 or email me at tcrapo@mac.com

This project is sponsored in part by a grant from the Leyden Local Cultural Council, a local agency that is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Letter from Candidate Barbara Wallace

I am running for a five-year term on the Planning Board, and would like to take this opportunity to outline my background and qualifications.

My husband, John, and I bought our land in Leyden on Alexander Road in 1995, where we built a house that we moved into in January of 1997. We felt then, and even more so now, that we had found our true home. My desire to serve the town is in part an expression of my gratitude for being able to call Leyden home. In addition, my professional background has equipped me with skills and experience that make me a strong candidate for the Planning Board.

My early career was in education. While living in California, I taught all subjects in the 7th grade and also taught at Golden Gate College at night. I taught math and biology in North Carolina, and I was a part-time faculty member in the business school at Western New England College in Springfield. In addition, I spent a year working with emotionally disturbed children at the Pioneer Valley Collaborative.

After earning an MBA at the University of Massachusetts, I started my banking career at Bank of Boston in 1986 as an AVP of Commercial Lending. In 1989 I moved to The Bank of Western Massachusetts where I worked for almost 20 years, retiring in 2009. I held many positions while in the Springfield office, including VP Commercial Lender, analyzing requests for loans and managing a multi million dollar portfolio of loan relationships; and VP of Operations running technology, mergers, branches, building of branches, human resources and training. In 2001 I was able to transfer to the Greenfield office where I was SVP of Commercial Lending, managing sales for the Northern offices and Municipal Banking. I was part of the Bank's Senior Management team for nine years.

My volunteer activities included the Advisory Board of the Isenberg School of Management at the University of Massachusetts; Trustee of Greenfield Community College; board member and Treasurer of the Women's Fund of Western Massachusetts; Co-founder of Women on Board, a not-for-profit organization to put women on Boards in the Pioneer Valley; Treasurer of Springfield Theatre Arts; Finance Committee of the Springfield Library and Museum Association; board member of the Pioneer Plan for Progress; board member of Westmass Area Development Corporation; board member of CISA; supervisor at NRCS; board member and past President of Franklin County Chamber of Commerce; and board member of the Greenfield YMCA.

From this varied background I can bring to the Planning Board an ability to build team work, handle complex issues where different views are present, understand, educate and manage expectations about Leyden's development, and be proactive about developing and understanding the community's long-term goals. Having provided commercial loans to many real estate developments, I am familiar with many of the towns' regulations. My sense of humor and directness, key to my past success, would certainly be a part of what I would bring to the Planning Board.

John and I have two children and three grandchildren and another grandchild on the way. We are blessed that they all live in Massachusetts and visit often. Maple Run Farm has horses, bees, chickens, sheep, dog and cat. You have probably seen our ads in Leyden Life.

I welcome any questions and the opportunity to get to know you and your concerns, so please feel free to call me at 774-7780. I would appreciate your vote!

Thank you for your consideration, Barbara Wallace

Letter from Candidate Jerry Lund

To Leyden Voters:

I hope I may take a little of your time to share with you some of my thoughts as a member of the Leyden Planning Board running for re-election this year. I have served two terms on the board, most of it as chair, during which time we have accomplished a lot for our town.

Most recently:

—as the Planning Board representative and chair of the Leyden Open Space Committee I oversaw the successful revision of our 2004-2009 Open Space and Recreation Plan. After sixteen months of work, our committee, working together with the Franklin Regional Council of Government's Planning Department, has finished the 2010-2017 Plan and will be presenting it to town meeting for approval. Among many other aspects the Plan's renewal will help maintain Leyden's competitiveness for state grants as funds are becoming scarce.

In the past few years our Board:

—revised our outdated subdivision control bylaws,
 —worked to update and clarify the Special Permit criteria and procedures of our zoning bylaws with the assistance of the FRCOG Planning Department (only partly approved by town meeting), and —developed a cell tower bylaw to protect the town from arbitrary siting of cell towers.

Present projects include adding a Flood Plain Overlay District to our bylaws so that the town may join the state Flood Plain Program (as decided at the April town meeting), revising our signage regulations, developing an accessory apartment bylaw, and finishing the revisions to our Special Permit bylaws. On top of all this the legislature may completely revise the Zoning Act this year, which will lead most towns to make changes to their local zoning laws.

I mention all this to make one simple point. Our (your!) Planning Board has shown by its hard work its complete commitment to making our town's land-use (zoning) laws work to maintain our town's most treasured asset for its people—our rural character. I hope you will give me the chance to continue this important work by giving me your vote on May 14th.

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to take part in this work.

—Jerry Lund
